PCS Students Excel at Fine Arts Festival

Each year the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools holds a Fine Arts Festival, and this spring, nine of our students participated. PCS was well represented with submissions in piano and vocal solos, drawing, painting, and textiles. Our students received marks of "excellent" and "superior," and 7th grader Kennedy Kashmer received 1st place in the polychromatic division.

Flag Football Champions

Earlier this month, our flag football team won the conference championship. They had a great season, and we are thrilled to end the school year with another championship team.

Lights, Camera, PCS in Action!

On April 28, PCS held its 5th annual talent show at Forest Hill Church in Fort Mill. We had fantastic performances by students and faculty, including various music selections, dancing, a Latin rap, and for the first time, ballet. Proceeds raised from this event will go towards our 2024 summer service trips to Alaska (for 9th/10th graders) and Greece (for 11th/12th graders).

Message from the Head of School

In Winston Churchill's pre-war speech, "The Defence of Freedom and Peace", he gave a warning to liberty-loving people everywhere: "The stations of uncensored expression are closing down; the lights are going out; but there is still time for those to whom freedom and parliamentary government mean something, to consult together. Let me, then, speak in truth and earnestness while time remains the same." Though the war we now face has changed, the warning and call to action are the same. We, too, are called to be a light in the increasing darkness around us. This will only happen when we recognize that the battle we face in our culture is a theological one. The god of this age wants nothing to do with truth or light and rejoices in confusion and chaos. Even acknowledging objective reality is an affront to many in our society today. At PCS, we believe all truth is God's truth and strive to point our students to that truth in every field of study. Our classical methodology develops logical thinkers who can discern falsehood and stand for what is good. Join us in praying that our students will be lights that pierce the darkness and bring hope to a world in need of truth.
